Benefit Concert Planned

Opening the spring semester music program of El Camino College, June Lusk Nelson, pianist and EC music instructor will present the music department's Scholarship Fund Benefit Recital Friday, Feb. 14, at 8:30 p.m. in the college auditorium. Mrs. Nelson will be assisted by Frances Steiner, cellist, Miss Steiner, a graduate of Curtis Institute of Music, is currently teaching at Cal-State, Dominguez. She is now working for her doctorate in music at the University of Southern California. The piano recital will feature Haydn's "Sonata in E Flat," Beethoven's "Sonata, Opus 31, No. 3," and Mussorgsky's "Pictures at an Exhibition." Samuel Barber's Sonata for cello and piano will also be performed. Tickets for the performance may be purchased at the college bookstore.

Spartans Qualify For Meet

South High will be represented in the state speech tournament by five students, South's forensic coach, Larry Banks, has announced. Qualification was earned at the Invitational Forensic Tournament of the University of Southern California, where South High won the sweepstakes trophy. Qualifying for state participation are Robert Saunders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Saunders of 5128 Merrill St., and Ernie Gutter, son of Mrs. Betty Gutter of 4709 Reese Rd., debate; David Brenner, son of Mrs. Grace Brenner of 5106 Paseo de Pablo, and Kathryn Shelley, daughter of Mrs. Jane Miner of 420 Via Mesa Grande, impromptu speaking; and Paula Kleman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Kleman of 405 Via Anita, original oratory. Other South High students who were contestants in the USC tournament include: Bill Seckinger, Jeff Mar, Robin Boyes, Brian Rix, Dean Curtis, Lorraine Wienstien, Paula Oligby, Cheryl Yelich, Mitchell Horowitz, and Bruce Byers.

Two Jailed For Drug Possession

Torrance police nabbed two suspects on charges of possession of dangerous drugs for sale at 5:20 a.m. Friday. Stopped by traffic patrolmen who observed their car driving in a suspicious manner were Linda Lee Wilson, 22, of 13102 S. Van Ness Ave., Gardena, and Marvin V. White, 23, of 1345 Frigate St., Wilmington. A search of the car revealed an envelope containing 178 capsules which appeared to be nembutal, police said. White was also charged with driving under the influence of a dangerous drug.
